

Rose Lamartine Yates was a Suffragette and a member of the Wimbledon branch of the WSPU. She was arrested in 1909 at a protest in Westminster and spent a month in prison. She lived in Dorset Hall in Merton, and her house was a refuge for women recovering from imprisonment.